

HUME CITY COUNCIL INVITES YOU TO THE

BUSINESS EFFICIENCY NETWORK

The price of business need not cost the earth

Hume City Council is renowned as a leader in environmental sustainability and is committed to supporting businesses in responding to the challenges borne out of the need for sustainability. Businesses are realising that they need to reduce their impact on the environment if they are to become sustainable.

Resource efficiency will help you improve the way you manage your raw materials, energy and water and therefore save your business money. It makes good business sense to manage resources effectively as the more waste a business creates the more money it loses.

Business can learn from each other and advocate through Council's Business Efficiency Network (BEN) which is designed to assist business to become more sustainable and competitive in a global market.

You are invited to attend the first Business Efficiency Network Forum:

Date: Thursday 19 June 2008

Venue: Hume Global Learning Centre, Seminar Room 4
1093 Pascoe Vale Road, Broadmeadows

Time: 10:00am - to 12:30pm

Cost: Free
